

What I'm bringing to the table!

Since we will be covering such a wide array of techniques and materials, I am offering to provide some of the paints, mixed-media and found objects from my personal collection. You are more than welcome to use my tools and supplies for either $5 (per session) or $30 (10 weeks)

Tools & materials

- ~ artist grade acrylic paint, pearlescent pigments, inks
- ~ texture gels & fluid mediums.
- ~ my arsenal of decorative paper
- ~ soft & oil pastels, water-soluble crayons
- ~ Yes paste, tacky glue, rubber cement
- ~ gold leaf
- ~ tweezers
- ~ needle & thread
- ~ gossip magazines
- ~ cheesecloth & gauze
- ~ squeeze bottles & eye droppers
- ~ plastic wrap
- ~ extra masonite & wood panels
- ~ power tools (yes!): skill saw, hammer, screwdriver, drill, glue gun & heat gun

Buried Treasure

sand, pebbles & stones

sea glass

marbles

astroturf

plastic flowers

pressed flowers & leaves bones, feathers & insects

moss

grasses, seeds & spices

twigs, bark, wood

barbed wire

circuit boards

watch pieces

wire mesh

rusty washers, nuts & bolts railroad ties

fish hooks

horse shoes

clock gears

chains

copper tape

decorative furniture tacks & nails metal sheeting

bullet casings

broken mirrors

liscence plates

picket fences

old yardsticks

creepy stuff

bottle caps & tabs

ticket stubs

playing cards

book pages, sheet music

foreign newspapers

fabric & lace

"bling"

broken china

beads